H.J.R. No. 164

A JOINT RESOLUTION

1 proposing a constitutional amendment relating to the prohibition on
2 increasing the total amount of ad valorem taxes imposed on the
3 residence homestead of an elderly person.

4 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

5 SECTION 1. Section 1-b(d), Article VIII, Texas Constitution,
6 is amended to read as follows:

7 (d) Except as otherwise provided by this subsection, if a
8 person receives any [the] residence homestead exemption prescribed
9 by [~~Subsection--(c)--of~~] this section for homesteads of persons
10 sixty-five (65) years of age or older, the total amount of ad
11 valorem taxes imposed on that homestead [~~for-general-elementary-and~~
12 ~~secondary--public--school--purposes~~] may not be increased while it
13 remains the residence homestead of that person or that person's
14 spouse who receives the exemption. If a person sixty-five (65)
15 years of age or older dies in a year in which the person received
16 the exemption, the total amount of ad valorem taxes imposed on the 17 homestead [~~for--general--elementary--and--secondary--public--school~~
18 ~~purposes~~] may not be increased while it remains the residence
19 homestead of that person's surviving spouse if the spouse is 20 fifty-five (55) years of age or older at the time of the person's 21 death, subject to any exceptions provided by general law. However,
22 taxes otherwise limited by this subsection may be increased to the
23 extent the value of the homestead is increased by improvements
24 other than repairs or improvements made to comply with governmental

BILL ANALYSIS

Ways & Means Committee
C.S.H.J.R. 64
By: Hamric
March 22, 1995
Committee Report (Substituted)

BACKGROUND

Presently, Section 11.13, Tax Code, limits the school district portion of ad valorem taxes for persons who are 65 or older for their residence homesteads. The total amount of school district taxes are limited to the amount in the first year of eligibility. The Texas Constitution provides that in the event of death, if the surviving spouse is at least 55 years old, the surviving spouse continues to qualify for the school district tax limitation. However, other taxing units that elect to offer an exemption to elderly people cannot exempt a surviving spouse that is over 55.

PURPOSE

The resolution proposes a constitutional amendment extending the current ad valorem tax exemptions for the elderly to a surviving spouse that is over 55.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

It is the committee's opinion that this bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, department, agency, or institution.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Section 1-b, Article VIII, Texas Constitution, by adding Subsection (f).

(f) Provides for the exemption of ad valorem taxation for the residence homestead of a surviving spouse over 55 to the same extent as the deceased spouse. Also limits the exemptions on surviving spouses to either the over-65 exemptions, or the surviving spouse exemptions, but not both. Provides for the Legislature to prescribe procedures for the administration of this subsection.

SECTION 2. Election Date: November 7, 1995;
Sets language for the ballot.

COMPARISON OF ORIGINAL TO SUBSTITUTE

The original resolution, H.J.R. 64, would extend the tax limitations on the residence homestead of a person that is over 65 to all taxing units, thereby limiting the total amount of ad valorem taxes imposed. This limitation would then be passed on to a surviving spouse that is over 55 (similar to the current school tax limitation).

C.S.H.J.R. 64, would pass on the current amount of exemptions that a person over 65 receives on their residence homestead to the surviving spouse if that person is over 55.

SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE ACTION

Public notice was posted in accordance with the rules, and a public hearing was held on February 28, 1995. Representative Hamric explained the resolution. Without objection, H.J.R. 64 was left pending before the committee.

On March 14, 1995, the committee met in a public hearing. Representative Hamric explained the substitute. Without objection, the committee adopted C.S.H.J.R. 64, by Craddick. By a record vote of 8 ayes, 0 nays, 0 present not voting and 3 absent, the committee voted to report H.J.R. 64 to the House as substituted with the recommendation that it do pass.
